TESOL House Trainer

General course information

1. The on-site TESOL course is an intensive experience which requires you to work long hours and attend 100% of the timetabled course.
2. The vast majority of candidates pass the course although there is a small number who fail or withdraw before the end of the course. The course is continuously assessed so you will be aware of your progress every step of the way. If you are in danger of failing, we will offer relevant guidance and support to help you.
3. You should consider arranging travel/medical insurance if you are an overseas applicant.

(You can ask for more information about the above points in the interview if you wish)
